THE HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE I

THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER, P. 323

THE WORD OF GOD

Voluntary: Trumpet Voluntary in D John Bennett

The Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity The Book of Common Prayer, p. 323

The Song of Praise: Glory be to God on high p. 324

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve: Pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Lessons

The First Lesson: Job 1:1; 2:1-10

There was once a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil. One day the heavenly beings came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD. The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan answered the LORD, "From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it." The LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man who fears God and turns away from evil. He still persists in his integrity, although you incited me against him, to destroy him for no reason." Then Satan answered the LORD, "Skin for skin! All that people have they will give to save their lives. But stretch out your hand now and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse you to your face." The LORD said to Satan, "Very well, he is in your power; only spare his life." So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and inflicted loathsome sores on Job from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. Job took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes. Then his wife said to him, "Do you still persist in your integrity? Curse God, and die." But he said to her, "You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Shall we receive the good at the hand of God, and not receive the bad?" In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 26 (Said by all)

- 1 Give judgment for me, O Lord,
for I have lived with integrity;*
I have trusted in the Lord and have not faltered.
- 2 Test me, O Lord, and try me;*
examine my heart and my mind.
- 3 For your love is before my eyes;*
I have walked faithfully with you.
- 4 I have not sat with the worthless,*
nor do I consort with the deceitful.
- 5 I have hated the company of evildoers;*
I will not sit down with the wicked.
- 6 I will wash my hands in innocence, O Lord,*
that I may go in procession round your altar,
- 7 Singing aloud a song of thanksgiving*
and recounting all your wonderful deeds.
- 8 Lord, I love the house in which you dwell*
and the place where your glory abides.
- 9 Do not sweep me away with sinners,*
nor my life with those who thirst for blood,
- 10 Whose hands are full of evil plots,*
and their right hand full of bribes.
- 11 As for me, I will live with integrity;*
redeem me, O Lord, and have pity on me.
- 12 My foot stands on level ground;*
in the full assembly I will bless the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,*
and to the Holy Ghost:

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,*
world without end. Amen.

The Second Lesson: Hebrews 1:1-4; 2:5-12

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels. But someone has testified somewhere, "What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them? You have made them for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned them with glory and honor, subjecting all things under their feet." Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them, but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying, "I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you."

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The congregation stands for the reading of the Gospel.

The Gospel: Mark 10:2-16

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Mark.

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Some Pharisees came, and to test Jesus they asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" He answered them, "What did Moses command you?" They said, "Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her." But Jesus said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female.' 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.' So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate." Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery." People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, "Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it." And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

— PARISH NOTICES —

GOD THE GIVER: Today marks the beginning of our 6 week annual stewardship campaign “God the Giver.” Each week’s bulletin will contain an insert with a reflection on the theme “God the Giver.” On three Sundays, October 11, 18 and 25, at 9:15AM, Bishop Itty will lead a brief study/discussion forum in the Lounge, focusing on the insert and Gospel for the day. Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend. In addition, during the Sunday Eucharist we will hear from fellow parishioners speak about the gifts God has given to them. This series will be informative and a great opportunity for spiritual growth.

THE FIRST CONCERT IN THE MUSIC AT ST. PETER’S 2015-2016 SEASON IS TODAY! George England, classical guitarist, will play a program featuring music from the 16th through the 21st centuries in solo and ensemble performances. An item of particular interest will be those pieces played on Theorbo, a Lute of the 17th and early 18th centuries. The program is at 4 pm, with a suggested donation of $20/$15, wine and cheese reception following. All are invited!

THE FOOD PANTRY is especially in need of SALTINES. We are now accepting monetary donations for the Food Pantry on the website. Click on the “Donate” button and you will see another button for “Food Pantry.”

MUSIC AT ST. PETER'S

Presents

GEORGE ENGLAND, classical guitar

Sunday, October 4, 2015

4 o'clock in the afternoon

George England grew up in an artistic home steeped in the traditions of American folk and jazz music. His relationship with the guitar is exploratory, as his performances often include works from the Renaissance to the present day, improvisation and historical period instruments in both solo and ensemble settings.

George was awarded a Fender Instruments Corporation Grant in 2004 to study jazz at the Berkeley School of Music in Boston and the Andrés Segovia Memorial Endowment in 2005 to pursue classical guitar at California State University Northridge. In 2008 he was a finalist in the Sierra Nevada International Solo Guitar Competition and received 1st Prize at the Festival of New American Music Performer's Competition in Sacramento, California.

George is currently a Doctoral Candidate in guitar performance at Stony Brook University and he holds a Master of Music from California State University Sacramento (CSUS) and a Bachelor of Music, Cum Laude, from California State University Northridge (CSUN). His teachers have included Ronald Bosczon, Ronald Purcell, Gyan Riley, Richard Savino, Steven Thachuk, and Brandon Yip. He is currently a student of Jerry Willard.

George's teaching career includes engagements ranging from private studio work to lecturing university courses. He had adjudicated at the Junior Bach Festival in Berkeley, California, the Stony Brook Pre-College Concerto Competition, and has led the guitar ensembles at CSUS. He has taught at CSUN and Yuba Community College and has developed guitar programs at the Music Stream Center, Sacramento School of Music, Stockton School of Music, Claremont Community School of Music, and was creator and sole proprietor of the Sacramento Guitar Institute. He is now on the faculty at the Music Conservatory of Westchester.

THE GIVER

Stewardship Narrative Series presented by TENS

Proper 22
Mark 10:2-16

Twenty years ago, when I was a high school freshman, one of America's most prominent preachers led a conference in my tiny hometown. The first night, I ran up to the evangelist, eagerly thrust out my hand, and said, "My name is Levi Harris, and I'm so excited to hear you speak!" Without looking up, the preacher nodded, muttered "uh-huh," and walked away to speak with local religious grandees about his fee. My town and I were beneath him, levying unwelcome taxes on his time and stature. He couldn't wait to get back to people and places that mattered.

His actions stand in stark contrast to Jesus' actions in today's Gospel. Jesus is a busy man too, on the road to Jerusalem and the Cross. He doesn't have much time.

But over the disciples' objections, Jesus takes a break from teaching, sits down, and focuses on being present with this band of little strangers. Where the disciples see a bunch of noisy, dirty, goofy kids making demands on Jesus' dwindling time and energy, Jesus sees an opportunity to give.

Time may be the most extravagant gift of all. We can always earn more money and buy more things, but we can't make more time. Time is a fixed commodity; once it is spent, it's gone forever. Even life itself is just a brief parenthetical carved tenuously out of the eons of eternity. That's why we shouldn't spend time on meaningless trifles: We don't have time to waste.

However, Jesus shows us that sharing time with others isn't wasteful. Stranger and friend, young and old, whole and infirm, rich and poor: people are worth our time. They're worth the effort it takes to make memories with them; to touch, serve, and bless them.

In fact, though science and experience teach us we can't stop time, sharing our time can bring us very, very close. Playing with children, say, or Christmas caroling at nursing homes, or serving food to the grateful hungry, or laughing with old friends, we may find ourselves transported again and again, suddenly, sublimely, to those "thin places" in which time stands still and, for fleeting moments, we're able to glimpse eternity. And I promise you that every loving, grateful act is timeless, and every wave it casts will keep on rippling, across forever, to the very end of the universe.

Two decades later, I still remember the preacher who thought I wasn't worth his time. Meanwhile, I suspect the little children Jesus took up in his arms that day were still telling the tale of his selfless generosity for the rest of their lives.

Miserly or magnanimous: What will they say about us?

Levi Harris is a lawyer practicing in the city of Chicago and a warden at St. Peter's, Chicago. He lives in the city with his partner Jacob and their English Cocker Spaniel Jojo.

Reflection Questions:

What activities occupy most of your time? Are the activities tiring or life-giving?

How do you feel when someone important to you devotes time to you?

What does Jesus teach us about how we use our time?

Episcopal CHURCH

OCTOBER 4, 2015—NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST (B)

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

On October 4th, the Church celebrates the life and witness of St. Francis of Assisi, founder of the Franciscan and Clarissine Orders, advocate for the poor, and friend of the animals.

Born in the late 12th century, Francis was the son of a wealthy merchant and his high-born wife. Despite living a life of general comfort and ease, he found himself called toward a life in pursuit of “Lady Poverty”. After a series of humbling interactions with the poor, Francis devoted himself to the care of the sick and poor, giving up his business interests and material possessions (much to his father’s chagrin). It could not have been easy, but Francis’ faith demanded that he trade in his fine clothes for sackcloth and financial security for scarcity. In the words of the prayer attributed to the saint, he found that “it is in giving that we receive.”

Francis founded the Order of Friars Minor, which demanded a strict vow of poverty, in the belief that worldly goods too often proved distractions from a sanctified life. With Clare of Assisi, he would form the Poor Clares, a religious order for women similarly dedicated to service. A Third Order would follow close behind, for those men and women who would live out Franciscan values in the context of everyday life. In Francis’ thought, to fully embrace one’s poverty was to embrace reliance on God alone; to physically suffer was to identify with Christ’s own suffering. According to Holy Women, Holy Men, this made Francis, “the most popular and admired [saint], but probably the least imitated.”

We may perhaps remember St. Francis best for his devotion to nature and animals; in several hagiographies, or stories of the saints, Francis is depicted as preaching to and otherwise communicating with fish, birds, and even a wolf. He believed that the Creator, is praised through all His creatures and, indeed, creation itself. It is in this spirit that many Episcopal churches offer blessings of pets and other animals each year on Francis' feast day. In order to commemorate the love Francis had for all of God's creation, churches may draw on The Episcopal Network for Animal Welfare's Rites and Prayers for the Care of Beloved Animals. These resources, authorized at the 2012 General Convention, can be found here: <http://www.franciscan-anglican.com/enaw/resources.htm>.

Collect for the Feast of St. Francis

Most high, omnipotent, good Lord, grant your people grace to renounce gladly the vanities of this world; that, following the way of blessed Francis, we may for love of you delight in your whole creation with perfectness of joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen. ("Holy Women, Holy Men," p. 623)
