WELCOME TO ST. PETER'S BY-THE-SEA EPISCOPAL CHURCH

We extend a warm welcome to everyone, and especially any visitors who may be worshipping with us today. If you do not already have a church home, please feel welcome to join this Parish family.

In the Episcopal Church, all baptized persons are welcomed to the table to receive Holy Communion.

Our Services begin with the Opening Voluntary. You are invited to enter quietly into the spirit of worship as the music is played.

PLEASE SILENCE YOUR CELL PHONES.

PARISH NOTICES FOR THE WEEK OF 8 MAY 2016

NEXT SUNDAY IS PENTECOST SUNDAY! We will have only ONE service that day, beginning at 10:00 AM. Following the service, there will be a festive reception in the Lounge. There are sign-up sheets at the Chapel and in the Narthex for volunteers to bring finger sandwiches. Please plan to join us in celebration of this major Feast Day in the Church Calendar, which is the official end of the Easter Season; and to greet our Diocesan Bishop for his triannual visitation to this parish family. (P.S. it is customary on this Feast Day to wear something RED!)

MAY WILL BE A BUSY CONCERT MONTH AT ST. PETER'S. Beginning today, eVoco Women's Ensemble will perform at 4:00 pm. Next Sunday, May 15th, The Island Symphony will play at 7:30 pm. Finally, on Sunday, May 22nd, at 4:00 pm, we will conclude the 2015-2016 Music at St. Peter's Concert series with a piano recital by acclaimed Long Island concert pianist Joel Rosenwasser. All are invited to all concerts.

A SPECIAL CLASS IN LIFE SAVING SKILLS will be offered at St. Peter's on Saturday, June 4 from 10–12 noon in the Lounge. This class, taught by Bill Carney, will cover Basic CPR for the Family (Infants through Adults), and will also demonstrate the defibrillator. A Sign-up sheet is in the Narthex.

IT'S GRADUATION TIME! We will be recognizing our graduates (preschool through ???) in a few weeks. Please contact Mark with names and what graduation is happening for your graduate so that we can honor them appropriately!

Parish Weekly Expenses:	$5,707.00
Income 5/1/16:	$3,763.00

O God, the King of glory, who hast exalted thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto thy kingdom in heaven: We beseech thee, leave us not comfortless, but send to us thine Holy Ghost to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Savior Christ is gone before; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

The Lessons

The First Lesson: Acts 16:16-34

With Paul and Silas, we came to Philippi in Macedonia, a Roman colony, and, as we were going to the place of prayer, we met a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners a great deal of money by fortune-telling. While she followed Paul and us, she would cry out, "These men are slaves of the Most High God, who proclaim to you a way of salvation." She kept doing this for many days. But Paul, very much annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour.

But when her owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities. When they had brought them before the magistrates, they said, "These men are disturbing our city; they are Jews and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to adopt or observe." The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods. After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely. Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was an earthquake, so violent that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were unfastened. When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors wide open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, since he supposed that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul shouted in a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here." The jailer called for lights, and rushing in, he fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. Then he brought them outside and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" They answered, "Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." They spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. At the same hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and his entire family were baptized without delay. He brought them up into the house and set food before them; and he and his entire household rejoiced that he had become a believer in God.

Psalm 97

Said by all

- 1 The Lord is King; let the earth rejoice; *
let the multitude of the isles be glad.
- 2 Clouds and darkness are round about him, *
righteousness and justice are the foundations of his throne.
- 3 A fire goes before him *
and burns up his enemies on every side.
- 4 His lightnings light up the world; *
the earth sees it and is afraid.
- 5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the Lord, *
at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
- 6 The heavens declare his righteousness, *
and all the peoples see his glory.
- 7 Confounded be all who worship carved images
and delight in false gods! *
Bow down before him, all you gods.
- 8 Zion hears and is glad, and the cities of Judah rejoice, *
because of your judgments, O Lord.

9 For you are the Lord, most high over all the earth; *
you are exalted far above all gods.

10 The Lord loves those who hate evil; *
he preserves the lives of his saints
and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.

11 Light has sprung up for the righteous, *
and joyful gladness for those who are truehearted.

12 Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous, *
and give thanks to his holy Name.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,*
and to the Holy Ghost:

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,*
world without end. Amen.

The Second Lesson: Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20-21

At the end of the visions I, John, heard these words:

"See, I am coming soon; my reward is with me, to repay according to everyone's work. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates.

"It is I, Jesus, who sent my angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star."

The Spirit and the bride say, "Come."

And let everyone who hears say, "Come."

And let everyone who is thirsty come.

Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift.

The one who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon."

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints. Amen.

The Gospel: John 17:20-26

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to John.

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus prayed for his disciples, and then he said. "I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me. Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

"Righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you; and these know that you have sent me. I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them."

The Anthem: God is Gone Up

Gerald Finzi

God is gone up with a triumphant shout!
 The Lord with sounding Trumpets' melodies:
 Sing Praise, sing Praise, sing Praise, sing Praises out,
 Unto our King sing praise seraphicwise!
 Lift up your Heads, ye lasting Doors, they sing,
 And let the King of Glory enter in.
 Methinks I see Heaven's sparkling courtiers fly,
 In flakes of Glory down him to attend,
 And hear Heart-cramping notes of Melody
 Surround his Chariot as it did ascend;
 Surround his Chariot as it did ascend;
 Mixing their Music, making ev'ry string
 More to enravish as they this tune sing.

—Edward Taylor and Psalm 47

The Seventh Sunday of Easter:
The Sunday after Ascension Day
Celebrate World Refugee Day

Lacy Broemel
May 8, 2016

This family was welcomed by Episcopal Migration Ministries to Miami, in the Diocese of Southeast Florida

In 2000, the United Nations General Assembly established June 20 as World Refugee Day to recognize and celebrate the contribution of refugees throughout the world and to raise awareness about the growing refugee crisis.

- There are nearly 60 million refugees, internally displaced people and asylum seekers worldwide – the largest number since World War II.
- In just the past four years, more than 4 million Syrians have fled the violence in their country.
- More than 50% of refugees are under 18 years old.

This year, the Episcopal Church, in partnership our network of 30 local affiliate offices, will welcome more than 5,000 refugees to the United States from countries across the globe – places like Democratic Republic of Congo, Burma, Afghanistan, and Syria. To make this happen, Episcopalians work together with community leaders, local businesses, and organizations to make sure every refugee has the warm welcome, food, housing, and support they need to make a new start.

You have an important role in this Gospel ministry of welcome. Here are just a few of the ideas for celebrating World Refugee Day in your congregation. Be sure to join Episcopal Migration Ministries and Episcopal Public Policy Network on May 12 at 7 pm Eastern for a #RefugeesWelcome World Refugee Day planning webinar: <http://bit.ly/WRDMay2016>.

- Find a local World Refugee Day event on our interactive events map: www.episcopalchurch.org/WorldRefugeeDay
- Host a #RefugeesWelcome dinner to support new Americans living in your community: <http://www.episcopalchurch.org/WorldRefugeeDay>.
- Lift up prayers for refugees in your congregation. Worship materials are here: <http://www.episcopalchurch.org/WorldRefugeeDay>.
- Join our educational webinar on June 20, 7 pm, to learn more about the refugee crisis, U.S. resettlement, and how you can be involved in creating a welcoming community for new Americans. Register using this link: <http://bit.ly/WRDJune2016>
- Start a conversation in your church about how you can be involved in this life-saving work. Use our World Refugee Day bulletin insert and planning materials found here: <http://www.episcopalchurch.org/WorldRefugeeDay>. Volunteer for this life-saving ministry by working with one of our local partners. Our affiliate network map is here: <http://bit.ly/EMMpartners>.
- Join the Episcopal Public Policy Network to learn more about how you can work with local and elected leaders to support refugees: advocacy.episcopalchurch.org.

Prayer for World Refugee Day

Written by #ShareTheJourney pilgrim Alyssa Stebbing, Outreach Ministry Director and Contemporary Music Director at Trinity Episcopal Church, The Woodlands, Texas

Gracious God, we pray for our newest neighbors, that those families who have sought refuge from the ravages of war and violence may find not only shelter and sustenance, but also a loving and supportive community in which to create a new beginning with dignity. Amen.

of seniors across Long Island. Episcopal Ministries of Long Island (EMLI) sponsored the “Senior Health and Wellness Summit” which featured a panel with presenters from four different senior programs. Franca Floro, Program Director of EMLI, said, “One of the main takeaways of the day was that one size does not fit all. There are a wide range of needs and many different ways to address those needs, including hosting your own onsite program, partnering with existing programs, or advocating on behalf of seniors to our representatives.”

Bishops United Against Gun Violence, of which Bishop Provenzano is a member, has partnered with the “Wear Orange” movement. The goal of the movement is to inspire as many people as possible to wear orange on Thursday, June 2 as a symbol of their commitment to work for an end to gun violence. Participants are encouraged to have their pictures taken in orange on June 2 and post the pictures to social media using the two hashtags: #WearOrange and #Episcopal.

From May 15 through June 1, advocates with Rural Migrant Ministries will march 200 miles from Long Island to Albany to garner support for the “Farmworkers Fair Labor Practices Act” currently in the NY State Legislature, which would protect the rights of farmworkers. The first day of the march will begin with a rally outside State Senator John Flanagan’s offices in Smithtown and conclude with a welcome to the marchers and panel discussion at St. John’s Episcopal Church in Huntington. The group will continue to stop at Episcopal parishes along the route through Long Island. Read more about the march and how to participate on the diocesan website.
