The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Lessons

The First Lesson: Job 42:1-6, 10-17

Then Job answered the LORD:

"I know that you can do all things,

and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.

'Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?'

Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.

'Hear, and I will speak;

I will question you, and you declare to me.'

I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear,

but now my eye sees you;

therefore I despise myself,

and repent in dust and ashes."

And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. The LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. He also had seven sons and three daughters. He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. After this Job lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations. And Job died, old and full of days.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34:1-8

(Sung by the choir)

Chant: Stephen Elvey

- 1 I will bless the Lord at all times,*
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
- 2 I will glory in the Lord;*
let the humble hear and rejoice.
- 3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord;*
let us exalt his Name together.
- 4 I sought the Lord, and he answered me*
and delivered me out of all my terror.
- 5 Look upon him and be radiant,*
and let not your faces be ashamed.
- 6 I called in my affliction and the Lord heard me*
and saved me from all my troubles.
- 7 The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him,*
and he will deliver them.
- 8 Taste and see that the Lord is good;*
happy are they who trust in him!

The Second Lesson: Hebrews 7:23-28

The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Anthem at the Sequence

Edward C. Bairstow

Jesu, the very thought of Thee with sweetness fills my breast; but sweeter far, Thy face to see, and in Thy presence rest.

— Bernard of Clairvaux, trans. E. Caswall

Alleluia

The Alleluia is sung first by the Cantor, then repeated by all, and sung again after the verse.

Al-le-lu-ia, al - le-lu-ia, — al-le - lu - ia.

Your word is a lantern to my feet and a light upon my path.

The Gospel: Mark 10:46-52

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; get up, he is calling you." So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well." Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

A warm welcome to everyone, and especially to any visitors who may be worshipping with us today. If you don't already have a church home, please feel welcome to join the St. Peter's Church family. In the Episcopal Church, all baptized persons are invited to the table to receive Holy Communion.

— PARISH NOTICES —

Bishop Itty will lead a brief study/discussion forum beginning at 9:15 am in the Library, focusing on today's Stewardship insert and Gospel for the day. Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend.

THIS AFTERNOON, EVOCO VOICE COLLECTIVE will present the "Fall Collection" concert at St. Peter's at 4:00 pm. Tickets for this concert sung by the Mixed Voices Ensemble are available at the door for $20.00.

ST. PETER'S UNITED THANK OFFERING INGATHERING sponsored by the ECW, will be held next Sunday November 1st. Envelopes and Blue Boxes are available in the Narthex and on the frontal case at the foot of St. Edmund's Chapel steps. Collected annually in parishes throughout the Episcopal Church, the money is distributed directly to those in need through grants for mission and ministry. Please make your check out to St. Peter's Episcopal Church, with UTO on the memo line and place in the offering plate on Sunday, November 1st. Our parish offering will be taken to Diocesan Convention and presented at the Convention Eucharist on Saturday, November 14, by Joan Derle, our ECW president.

A VERY SPECIAL SERVICE OF VESPERS will be sung by the Parish Choir on Sunday, November 15 at 4pm. This service will be offered in memory of parishioners who have died since this time last year, and those who will be remembered in the All Saints' Day services next Sunday. The "Requiem" by Maurice Duruflé will be sung, accompanied by organist Henry DeVries. A Champagne Reception will follow in the Lounge. All are invited to attend!

ST. PETER'S CHRISTMAS CRAFT FAIR WILL BE ON SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21. Vendors Wanted, $50.00 per table. Vendors should make reservations by November 14.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING FESTIVAL on Sunday, November 22nd. During the offertory at the 10:15 service, we will receive your gifts, offerings, special donations, and food items for the pantry. A Potluck Dinner will be served in the Parish Hall after the service. And for the children that day, immediately following the service will be the “ST. PETER’S ANNUAL CHILDREN’S CHRISTMAS ORNAMENT WORKSHOP” All parish children are invited to create paper ornaments, which will later be hung on our Angel Tree for gifts for children in need. Donations of arts and crafts supplies are welcomed! Refreshments will be served. For information: call Kathy Malloy at 631-626-0812.

THE FOOD PANTRY is especially in need of PASTA and PEANUT BUTTER AND JELLY. You may now make monetary donations for the Food Pantry on the website. Click on the “Donate” button and you will see another button for “Food Pantry.”

PLEASE SUPPORT BOY SCOUTS TROOP 43! Orders for Christmas Wreaths and decorations are being taken now for delivery in time for Christmas. Order forms and more information is available in the Narthex and forms must be returned by November 2.

GOD THE GIVER

Stewardship Narrative Series presented by TENS

*Proper 25
Mark 10:46-52*

It was Saturday afternoon. I was taking a solitary walk in the historic area of Philadelphia when I encountered a handicapped beggar on the street. He was sitting with his legs sprawled. His tattered clothes and unkempt appearance repelled me. I tried to ignore him, hoping not to be noticed. But that was not to be. He yelled out, “Sister, stop and talk to me!” I paused, knowing God was watching and waiting for my response.

I reluctantly approached him to look squarely in his face. As I bent down he grabbed a cross hanging around my neck and asked, “Are you a Christian?” Stunned, I replied “Yes.” I asked if he, too, was a Christian and he replied, “Oh yes, and let me tell you everything God has done for me.” What flowed out of his soul was a litany of blessings, healings, provision and gratitude for never being without the necessities of life. He then asked my name and for my prayers. I reciprocated. My tears welled up as the encounter drew to a close. I put money into his cup and said goodbye.

But he wasn't finished with me. As I walked away he yelled out, “Mary, I love you!”

I stopped dead in my tracks. This broken, gentle man was a messenger from God! It was as if God were directly speaking to me and saying, “Mary, can’t you see that I am the source, the giver of every good and necessary thing in your life? You have cried out many times asking for mercy and blessing and I have granted them to you. And above all, I love you.”

This profound encounter 17 years ago changed me. No longer do I give or serve out of obligation or duty, but out of a deep gratitude for God’s generosity. Giving of my life and my resources has become pure joy.

Mark 10:46-52 tells the story of Bartimaeus, a blind beggar who was not afraid to cry out to Jesus for mercy and healing. Nothing would stop him from asking for what he needed. Jesus heard his cry of faith and healed him. In return, Bartimaeus became a follower. Both Bartimaeus and the man I encountered were deeply aware of God’s mercy and provision in their lives and were so thankful.

Let us be bold and cry out to God when we are in need! For God’s other name is Giver. Our new name will be Thankful.

Mary M. MacGregor is the Canon for Evangelism and Congregational Development, Episcopal Diocese of Texas.

Reflection Questions:

Recall a time you were deeply aware of God’s provision in your life.

How has God the Giver been exemplified in your life story?

Do you give out of obligation or thankfulness?
