Diane Block received her Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Violin Performance at the Manhattan School of Music. She studied with the notable Russian violin pedagogue Raphael Bronstein, who had been a student of Leopold Auer in Russia. She performed on the stages of Carnegie Hall and Avery Fisher Hall, among others, with the American Philharmonic Orchestra and the National Orchestra of New York and under the baton of James Levine, Lukas Foss and David Amram.

Terry Batts got his start in music through the Westbury public schools on Long Island. He received a scholarship to study at Juilliard during high school and went on to earn his Bachelor's and Master's Degrees from the Manhattan School of Music. In 1981 he toured with Stevie Wonder on a sweeping 5 city tour with concerts at the Met and Madison Square Garden. Terry then won a grant to study in Paris where he collaborated with musicians from all over the world. He has been Orchestra Director at Lawrence High School for 18 years.

THE CHENAULTS
America's Premier Pipe Organ Duo

Sunday, October 14, 2018
4:00 pm

$20/$15 seniors, students, members of AGO

Specializing in and exclusively performing works written for four hands and four feet at one pipe organ console, Elizabeth and Raymond Chenault ("The World's Premiere Duo-Organ Team", Atlanta Journal & Constitution) have made a monumental and unmatched contribution to the pipe organ repertoire through their commissioning, premiering, and recording of over sixty organ duets in a wide array of styles, from John Rutter and Stephen Paulus to their own arrangements of Christmas carols, Wagner arias, and Andrew Lloyd Webber's Phantom of the Opera. "No one can contest the spectacular facility, amazing artistry and technique, creative and diverse programming, and an accurate sense of what the public - from casual listeners to highly trained church musicians - will enjoy and appreciate." (The AAM Journal).

The Chenaults are represented in North America exclusively by Phillip Truckenbrod Concert Artists, LLC.

Choral (Sonate à Deux) (1992)	Gaston Litaize (1909-1991)

This concert is cosponsored by Music at St. Peter's, and the Suffolk and Nassau Chapters of the American Guild of Organists

2018-2019 CONCERTS

Four Concerts by
The eVoco Voice Collective

The eVoco Voice Collective* is an award winning collection of singers of the highest musical, technical, and expressive abilities whose shared mission is to invite listeners into the extraordinary experience of singing, together. The Collective, under the direction of Dr. David Fryling, are passionate advocates for excellence in the choral & vocal art, presenting evocative concerts and recitals of the highest caliber, summoning the power of the empathetic imagination to remind us of our shared human experiences.

From the Latin evocare [ex- ("out") vocare ("to call")]: to lure, to summon, to evoke*

This season, eVoco will present four outstanding concerts to our audiences:

An energetic and engaging conductor, clinician, and adjudicator of professional, community, and high school choirs, Dr. David Fryling is director of choral activities at Hofstra University, where he conducts both the select Hofstra Chorale and Hofstra Chamber Choir and teaches beginning and graduate-level studies in choral conducting and literature. In addition, he serves as an adjunct professor for the Hofstra School of Education, where he supervises choral music education student teachers during their field placements. In fall 2014 David was inducted into the Long Island Music Hall of Fame as the "Educator of Note" in recognition of his years of leadership in the Long Island music education community, and in the spring of 2017 David was named winner of the American Prize in Conducting in two categories: community chorus and college & university.

Please note that Tickets are available online for $20 general admission or $10 students and seniors at https://www.evoco.vc/concerts/. Tickets purchased at the door are $25 general admission and $15 students and seniors.

DEAR PARISHIONERS AND FRIENDS OF MUSIC AT ST. PETER'S CHURCH

Music at St. Peter's has been a leading series of concerts and special services on Long Island for well over 40 years!

This season, we have an especially tempting line-up sure to please nearly every taste in music.

Instrumental offerings include the magical pairing of violin and cello in the Gemini Duo; the trio of violin, cello, and clarinet of the Cross Island Ensemble; and the full orchestra of our Ensemble-in-Residence "The Island Symphony Orchestra."

The organ will be featured in a unique concert played by Raymond and Elizbeth Chenault, America's Premier Pipe Organ Duo. This will be the second time the Chenaults will have performed at St. Peter's — with only about 30 years separating the two concerts! This concert will be cosponsored by Music at St. Peter's and the Suffolk and Nassau Chapters of the American Guild of Organists.

Music for voices will be presented in two concerts - our annual "Art of Song" which features all four of our staff singers; and Victoria Wolfe, our staff Soprano, will be heard in a full voice recital.

Finally, the Choral Arts will be presented in four concerts by the eVoco Voice Collective, and in special services of worship sung by the Parish Choir.

Music at St. Peter's is only able to exist because of the generosity of our donors, our "Friends of Music at St. Peter's." You are invited to consider supporting our concerts and special musical offerings by making a contribution. Names of contributors will be listed in our programs, unless acknowledgement is deferred by the donor. Gifts may also be made as Memorials or Honorary contributions, and those are acknowledged as such on programs and service leaflets. We look forward to welcoming you to Music at St. Peter's, 2018-2019!
